of about 50, rather small of stature, well proportioned, and a fluent speaker, al-though he unfortunately is not ac-quainted with the English language. President Antonio Flores fears him, and in 1888 offered to let him return to Ecuador, providing he would enter into a combination with him, and promised that he would so manipulate the elec-tions that Alfaro should be his successor in the presidency. The general having positively refused to listen to any com-promise, has been followed by Flores' vengeance ever since, and thus he had king up Telephone 405 for John Wieland and Fredericksburg Bottled Beer, and you will get the very Best. vengeance ever since, and thus he had to become a visitor to California. In 1883, during a revolution against the leaders of the Conservative party, Alfaro, who was the commander-in-chief of the Liberal forces, obtained supreme control of the whole coast of Ecuador, but his party suffered reverses and he voluntarily left his native land, going to Colombia, where the Conservatives, then in power too, expelled him. He returned to Panama later, and was permitted to remain there until the machinations of Flores once more caused him to be driven away. He then went to Costa Rica and Venezuela, whose presidents are his friends, and thence came to California to be with Mr. Duque for a few days. General Alfaro expressed himself delighted with the climate of this state, the more so that he had been under apprehensions that it would not suit him after a lifetime passed under equatorial latitudes.

In an interesting half hour's chat granted a HERALD reporter, General Alfaro reviewed the causes which have produced so many revolutions in the re-publics of South America. The primary reason of the troubles was the unfair way in which the government of Ecuador settled her share of the debts contracted in England by Venezuela, New Granada and Ecuador when they found-ed the great republic of Colombia.

The scandalous and unfair conduct of President Caamaño in the settlement of the foreign debt, in the year 1884, by of President Caamaño in the settlement of the foreign debt, in the year 1884, by which enormous quantities of public land were to be stolen from the people and concessions made to strangers, fat. and concessions made to strangers, caused the most violent indignation. Resistance was stilled by Caamaño, however, through means of persecution, robbery, arson, murder, imprisonment and confiscation of property. I was well justified when I accused Antonio Flores, the tool of the president, of seeking to enrich himself by ruining the state, under pretense of settling the British debt.

"We of the Liberal party do not op-pose immigration; on the contrary, we should be willing to give land gratis to such new-comers as intended really to cultivate their sections, but in no wise are we willing to let the land be stolen in the scandalous manner which the Conservatives advocate for the sole purpose of their own aggrandizement.

"But there is a subject right here upon which I wish to make a few remarks. It is a subject of importance as much to the United States as it is to Ecuador, and it is the cession of the Ecuador, and it is the cession of the Galapagos islands, as contemplat-ed by Señor Antonio Flores. The Daily Star and Herald of December 7th of last year stated that there was talk of granting the United States a coaling station at Galapagos, which islands had been virtually aban-dened by Ecuador It also believed doned by Ecuador. It also believed that there was a disposition on the part of the Ecuadoran government to sell them, and one on the part of the government of Washington to buy them I do not know who inspired the article, but I know that no Ecuadoran who is not affiliated with the band of thieves now in power would countenance such a sale. Such an event would for ever lose to this great nation the sympathy of Latin America, and would make us feel that we Ecuadorans had been treated shabbily and unjustly. "I rejoice to know that the Liberal party is again becoming strong in the republics where I have lived so long, that it will soon be able to openly proclaim that it is tired of misrule, and will take up arms for its rights and principles. We do not seek personal re-venge. We want principles to prevail, those of liberty and honesty above all The moment the call to arms resounds you may rest assured that I shall at once depart for my home, to shed my blood for right and country."
